1. The lease agreement in respect of all allottees of quarters on Long Term Lease, who were allotted quarters by HEC under the LTL Scheme 2000, 2002 & 2004 will be signed with effect from 24th November 2014.
2. Agreement will only be signed with the bona-fide allottee and not with anyone else.
3. In those cases where the original allottee has expired / is no more / is deceased between the date of issue of provisional allotment letter and issue of this advertisement, they will adhere to the following:

SN	Issues	Legal decision
1	2	3
1	LTL execution by surviving spouse of person who expired without involving in any form the sons and daughters of the persons concerned	The surviving spouse shall be entitled for LTL execution
2	LTL execution by surviving spouse of person who expired with involvement of the sons and daughters of the persons concerned	The surviving spouse shall be entitled for LTL execution
3	If both persons i.e. the lessee and his/her spouse expired. Whether LTL will be executed in favour of one or more son(s) and/or daughter(s) in whose favour other remaining son(s) and daughter(s) give their consent and submit perpetual disclaimed certificate / declaration.	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. To avoid any dispute in future all the survivors, sons and daughter may give their power of attorney in favour of on to execute the lease agreement in favour of all the dependents. Mere disclaimer statement would not suffice and in such case to avoid future dispute Succession Certificate from a competent Court of jurisdiction may be demanded2. The accrued right of the deceased shall devolve upon all the legal heirs and as such M/s HEC should not discriminate in favour or against any one particular dependant without any order / decree of a competent Court
4	In the event of disagreement amongst the son(s) and daughter(s) as stated in SI. No. 3 above whether LTL execution will be in favour of succession certificate holder	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. To avoid any dispute in future all the survivors, sons and daughter may give their power of attorney in favour of on to execute the lease agreement in favour of all the dependents. Mere disclaimer statement would not suffice and in such case to avoid future dispute Succession Certificate from a competent Court of jurisdiction may be demanded2. The accrued right of the deceased shall devolve upon all the legal heirs and as such M/s HEC should not discriminate in favour or against any one particular dependant without any order

		/ decree of a competent Court
5	In the event the spouse and son(s) and daughter(s) declare the premises in favour of one or more than one out of the above mentioned person and submit perpetual declaration / certificate accordingly then whether executing agreement in favour of such person(s) will be legally valid.	1. To avoid any dispute in future all the survivors, sons and daughter may give their power of attorney in favour of on to execute the lease agreement in favour of all the dependents. Mere disclaimer statement would not suffice and in such case to avoid future dispute Succession Certificate from a competent Court of jurisdiction may be demanded 2. The accrued right of the deceased shall devolve upon all the legal heirs and as such M/s HEC should not discriminate in favour or against any one particular dependant without any order / decree of a competent Court
6	In case of REGISTERED Will of the persons who have deposited one time premium is submitted by a person (spouse / son /daughter) then whether it will be binding on HEC to execute Lease Agreement in favour of that person(s) without probate	M/s HEC should demand a probate from a competent Court without which the will cannot be enforced and Under India Succession Act, 1925 will can only take effect after the probate has been granted
7	In the event of illegal transfer i.e., without permission of lessor M/s HEC Ltd. LTL agreement will not be executed unless the LTL agreement is regularized as per provisions of the respective LTL scheme.

4. Allottees are advised to clear all Estate Revenue Accounts (ERA) dues including water charges, electricity charges, rental dues or any other dues outstanding towards HECLtd. well on time before 15 Jan 2013. Agreements will not be signed unless all ERA dues are paid.
