

HEC asks officials to maintain transparency in work

Vigilance
Awareness
Period concludes

PNS ■ RANCHI

The Vigilance Department of HEC Limited asked all its officers to work like vigilance officers in their own areas to ensure transparency in working and deterrent action against employees involved in corrupt malpractices. The department made appeal to the officials in the valedictory function that was held at HEC Auditorium on Sunday on the conclusion of Vigilance Awareness Period.

The officials were asked to maintain absolute integrity, honesty, devotion to duty and transparency in official work. The need to make each employee of the company aware about the ill effects of corruptions and importance of vigilance in bringing over all organisational growth was reiterated by all the dignitaries.

The officials were asked to maintain absolute integrity, honesty, devotion to duty and transparency in official work. The need to make each employee of the company aware about the ill-effects of corruption and importance of vigilance in bringing over all organisational growth was reiterated by all the dignitaries

BK Nayak, Senior Deputy General Manager, presented annual vigilance report regarding activities of Vigilance Department of the company. During the Vigilance Awareness Period between October 25 and November 1, debate competitions on the subject "Generation of Awareness and Publicity against Corruption" were held at all plants and units including Headquarters' at HEC.

R Mishra Director (Finance), Chief Guest, Bharat Prasad, Director (Marketing & Production), Guest of Honour,

MS Kalra, Senior Commandant CISE, and SR Sahay addressed the participants of the valedictory session.

Chief Guest and other dignitaries gave away prizes to the participants. A special prize was given to RL Choudhary, Senior Deputy GM (Shipping & Movement Department) of HMBP for streamlining of system of payment to transporters.

At last, S Krishna, Senior Manager (Vigilance) proposed vote of thanks. Ravindra Verma, CVO of the company, and senior officials attended the programme.

HINDUSTAN TIMES, RANCHI,
TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 02, 2010

Vigilance Week concludes at HEC

RANCHI: The vigilance awareness week concluded at Heavy Engineering Corporation on Monday. BK Nayak, senior deputy general manager (vigilance) presented the annual vigilance report in the valedictory function. Officers and employees were asked to maintain absolute integrity, honesty, devotion to duty and transparency in official work. Doodarshan, Ranchi Centre gets new director
Ajay Kumar Gupta has taken over charge as the new director of the Doodarshan, Ranchi Centre from October 4. A formal introduction ceremony would be organised at the centre on November 2.